SIR,

I have the honour to forward herewith copies of the resolutions of the Goribidnur Minor Municipal Council dated 19-2-33 and 22-1-34 in the matter of the levy of lighting tax in the town at Rs 0-4-0 in every rupee of mohatarfa and to state that the proposal to the levy was contemplated prior to August 1933 when the Regulation of 1906 was in force.

All the formalities governing the levy under Section 59 and 60 of the old Regulation have been duly observed. A copy of the Rules under Section 46 (i) of the Regulation 1906 is also enclosed. As the streets are already lit with electricity, I request you to be so good as to obtain sanction of Government to the levy of the tax under Section 61 (c) read with Section 2 (a) of the Municipal Regulation 1933 with effect from 1st January 1934.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Kolar District.

Mr G.P. Rao. Is the action otherwise in order, formalities being taken under the old regn for levy of a tax under the new Regn? Should not the preamble be modified? Rest of the procedure is right and it is only the wording of legislation that enables the Govt to complete the formalities; otherwise a full report as to what she has done must be sent to Govt. The property under [illegible] Please see the letter just now received. But Govt is not the authority to frame the Rules. Rules have to be framed by the Municipality and Govt has only to approve of them before they are given effect to.
